“The students were assigned to compose and paint both an unobstructed view and a view through the glass of the CAC vitrine; that is, to explore how the glass changes our perception of the view. The content of the vitrine was not our main subject.” – Kristijonas Miliūnas, teacher at Justinas Vienožinskis Art School, Vilnius

The assignment coincided with the exhibition If you do know that here is one hand..., displayed in this vitrine and organized by the Contemporary Art Centre (CAC), Vilnius. The exhibition took place between 4 May and 1 June in 2010, and featured works by Anonym, Goda Budvytytė, Liudvikas Buklys, Gintaras Didžiapetris, Antanas Dombrovskis, Stanisław Filibert Fleury, Antanas Gerlikas, Martijn In't Veld, Juozas Laivys, Raimundas Malašauskas, Nicolas Matranga, Elena Narbutaitė,

Peter I, Post Brothers, Jennifer Teets, 2Easy Fashion, Ola Vasiljeva, and the Yearbook Collective (Goda Budvytytė, Kevin Killian, Falke Pisano, Adam Putnam, Aaron Schuster, Alex Cecchetti, Marco Belfiore, Juozas Laivys together with Darius Mikšys, Benoît Maire, Gintaras Didžiapetris, Jessie Ash, Patricia Esquivias, Yi-Ping Hou & Joe Miceli).
